Global Chemical Regulation Conference 2023 Sponsorship Opportunities

Why sponsor our event?

The CIRS Global Chemical Regulation Conference, on Thursday, October 5, 2023, will be attended by more than 100 attendees. It will provide your company with ample opportunities to showcase your expertise and services to chemical industry representatives. This includes manufacturers, distributors, regulatory affairs managers, and those looking to move into new markets or trying to understand their obligations in the ever-changing regulatory landscape.

What will you receive?

- A stand with space for your materials and your company's banner;
- Two free exhibitor tickets to attend the event, represent your company and distribute materials at your stand;
- Sponsorship acknowledgement (with a link) on our website and LinkedIn page;
- Your logo will be displayed at our registration stand;
- Your logo and a 100-word description about your company on our sponsorship page via our event page;
- A short advertising video at the venue; and
- Your lunch and refreshments during the breaks will also be included.
